I. Who is Sathya Sai Baba?

Sathya Sai Baba is one of the most revered spiritual teachers in the world today. He teaches not only through his writings and public discourses but more importantly through the example he sets in his daily life. His life and his teachings have inspired millions of people from all walks of life and from practically every country to turn Godward, to practice brotherhood, to serve the needy, and to strive to lead constructive and moral lives.

Sathya Sai Baba was born on 23 November 1926 in the remote village of Puttaparthi, in Southern India. From an early age, he began to demonstrate extraordinary, super human powers and displayed profound wisdom regarding spiritual matters. At age 14 he firmly declared that he had taken birth for the express purpose of leading mankind back onto the path of truth, righteous conduct, peace, love, and nonviolence. Though his fame has spread throughout the world, he continues to reside in Puttaparthi in an ashram called Prasanthi Nilayam (abode of supreme peace), which can accommodate thousands of visitors. Sathya Sai Baba has established modern, state-of-the-art hospitals, elementary and secondary schools, colleges, and a major university, all of which provide services to everyone without charge. He also constructed a massive drinking water system for the benefit of millions in previously unserved villages and cities across India. The once almost inaccessible village of Puttaparthi now hosts a commercial bus terminal, a railway station, and an airport.

II. The Message He Brings

Sathya Sai Baba teaches that man's basic nature is divine and that the purpose of life is the realization of that divinity. This will occur, he says, through leading a moral life, rendering selfless service to those in need, and developing love and respect for all life.

He re-emphasizes principles that form the foundation of the world's major religions: truth, right conduct, peace, love, and nonviolence. He encourages us to practice these human values in our daily lives and sets an inspiring example by the way he leads his own life.

He says that faith and confidence are necessary requisites for a happy and successful life: "Confidence leads to peace, peace leads to love, love leads to truth, truth leads to bliss."

The responsibility for bringing about World Peace, says Sathya Sai Baba, rests with the individual. His prescription is simple, yet profound:

If there is righteousness in the heart,

There will be beauty in the character.

If there is beauty in the character,

There will be harmony in the home.

If there is harmony in the home,

There will be order in the nation.

If there is order in the nation,

There will be peace in the world.

III. His Mission

Sathya Sai Baba stresses that he is not seeking to establish a new religion or to direct people toward a particular religion. He encourages those attracted to his message to “continue worshiping along lines already familiar to you.” He has also said, “Let the different faiths exist, and let the glory of God be sung in all languages and tunes. That should be the ideal. Respect the differences between the faiths and recognize them as valid as long as they do not extinguish the flames of unity. If each person lives the ideals propounded by the founders of their religion, unaffected by greed or hate, then the world will be a happy and peaceful habitation for mankind.”

About his mission Sathya Sai Baba says, “I have come to light the lamp of love in your hearts, to see that it shines day by day with added luster. I have not come on any mission of publicity for any sect or creed or cause; nor have I come to collect followers for any doctrine. I have come to tell you of this Universal unitary faith, this path of Love. Believe that all Hearts are motivated by the One and Only God, that all names in all languages and all forms man can conceive denote the one and only God. Cultivate the attitude of oneness between people of all creeds, all countries and all continents. This is the message of Love I bring.”

IV. Additional Information

There are Sathya Sai Baba Centers in various cities across the United States and in over 110 countries around the world. Members of the Centers meet regularly in order to study and discuss the teachings of Sathya Sai Baba and to engage in group devotional singing, meditation, and prayer. Center members also plan and implement a variety of community service projects that are within their means and resources. There is never any solicitation or fee charged for any function that a Center conducts.

All are welcome, regardless of race, creed, economic status, or religious orientation. Sathya Sai Baba says:

“There is only one Caste, the Caste of Humanity;

There is only one Religion, the Religion of Love;

There is only one Language, the Language of the Heart;

There is only One God, and He is Omnipresent.”
